

STUDENTS OF Lansing O'Rafferty High School are pictured above rehearsing for a play they will present this weekend. The three-act Broadway comedy, "January Thaw," will be presented on Friday and Saturday. Pictured are: (from left) standing—Chris Scannell, Mike Hayes, Mike Thelan, Jeannette Smith, Mike Lynch and Mike Magnotta; seated—Bruce Miller, Jackie Martell, Linda Stratton, Theresa Tobin and Jill Patterson.

Broadway Comedy Chosen for O'Rafferty Class Play

LANSING—The senior class of O'Rafferty High school is presenting its annual play this weekend. Performances of "January Thaw" are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m.

Junior high students saw the play Thursday afternoon. There will be a special matinee Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. for the sisters of the area.

A THREE-ACT Broadway comedy, "January Thaw" is the story of two New England families disputing about the ownership of an old farmhouse. Both are in residence and neither will give possession to the other. This sets off a chain reaction of humorous events.

Because of the large number of girls trying out, there will be a double cast of women's roles. Leads are played by Theresa Tobin, Maureen Holmes, Nancy Gibbs, Jill Patterson, Martha Wackerly, Linda Stratton, Bruce Miller, Michael Lynch and Chris Scannell.

Kathy Glazier, Linda Schertzing, Jackie Martell, Nancy Mulvaney, Mike Thelen, Gene Klco, Mike Hayes and Mike Magnotta complete the cast. Mrs. Lynn Simon, speech teacher, directed the play. Kern Slucter was the student director.

Some seniors, not in the play, are participating as crew members, working on lights, sound-effects, sets, makeup etc. Others are part of the publicity committee or ushers corps. Every senior has taken some part in the project.